the motivation manifesto is a poetic and powerful call to reclaim our lives and find our own personal freedom it s a triumphant work that transcends the title lifting the reader from mere motivation into a soaringly purposeful and meaningful life i love this book paulo coelho the motivation manifesto is a pulsing articulate ferocious call to claim our personal power world renowned high performance trainer brendon burchard reveals that the main motive of humankind is the pursuit of greater personal freedom we desire the grand liberties of choice time freedom emotional freedom social freedom financial freedom spiritual freedom only two enemies stand in our way an external enemy defined as the social oppression of who we are by the mediocre masses and an internal enemy a sort of self oppression caused by our own doubt and fear the march to personal freedom burchard argues can be won only by declaring our intent and independence stepping into our personal power and battling through self doubt and the distractions of the day until full victory is won recalling the revolutionist voices of the past that chose freedom over tyranny burchard at times poetic yet always fierce motivates us to free ourselves from fear and take back our lives once and for all

a call to action from jane fonda one of the most inspiring activists of our time urging us to wake up to the looming disaster of climate change and equipping us with the tools we need to join her in protest this is the last possible moment in history when changing course can mean saving lives and species on an unimaginable scale it s too late for moderation in the fall of 2019 frustrated with the obvious inaction of politicians and inspired by greta thunberg naomi klein and student climate strikers jane fonda moved to washington d c to lead weekly climate change demonstrations on capitol hill on october 11 she launched fire drill fridays and has since led thousands of people in nonviolent civil disobedience risking arrest to protest for action in what can i do fonda weaves her deeply personal journey as an activist alongside conversations with and speeches by leading climate scientists and inspiring community organizers and dives deep into the issues such as water migration and human rights to emphasize what is at stake most significantly fonda equips us all with the tools we need to join her in protest so that everyone can work to combat the climate crisis no stranger to protest fonda's life has been famously shaped by activism and now she is once again galvanizing the public to take to the streets many are already aware of the looming disaster of climate change and realize that a moral responsibility rests on our shoulders in 2019 we saw atmospheric concentrations of greenhouse gases hit the highest level ever recorded in human history and our window of opportunity to act is quickly closing we are facing a climate crisis but we're also facing an empathy crisis and an inequality crisis the surge of protests over police violence against black americans has once again highlighted the links between racism and environmental degradation in our country it isn't only earth's life support systems that are unraveling so too is our social fabric this is going to take an all out war on drilling and fracking and deregulation and racism and misogyny and colonialism and despair all at the same time as annie leonard executive director of greenpeace usa and fonda's partner in developing fire drill fridays has declared change is inevitable by design or by disaster together we can commandeer change for the positive but it will require collective actions taken by social movements on an unprecedented scale the problems we face now require every one of us to join the fight the fight for not only our immediate future but for the future of generations to come 100 of the author's net proceeds from what can i do have gone to greenpeace
