the professionalism of the early childhood sector has gained prominence on the policy agendas of many countries national pedagogical frameworks or curricula and an upsurge of pathways to gaining or upgrading qualifications has led to a pervasive terminology of professionalism yet despite the pervasiveness of this terminology the question of what professionalism means in early years contexts remains open to debate this book draws together the work of an international group of scholars who have engaged with this question they ask how can professionalism be conceptualised in early childhood settings how might one act professionally in increasingly diverse and changing social and cultural contexts do we have a common ground of understanding about these terms are there key concepts that can be agreed upon drawing on research and experience across a wide range of national contexts this book seeks an understanding of early childhood professionalism in local contexts that might throw light on the global implications of this term this book was published as a special issue in the european early childhood education research journal
